Cadmium Final Pre-Pub Memo signed.pdf

Hello Amparo,

I have attached a memo regarding our pre-publication of the cadmium documents to our webpage on 3/30.

I am a little confused by the exchange below, we do not need anything to be previewed in the docket- outside of the ordinary- prior to the posting of the FRN, as we are posting the documents, including a pre-pub edition of the FRN- directly on our webpage. Maybe I am misunderstanding something?

Thank you,

Ashley

Hi Kathryn,

I have assigned the supports to be indexed, however, they won't be posted till the FRN has come out. Right now there's no posted FRN for the Final Rule –the phase where you have added these supports—unless you are expecting the FRN to come out on 3/30.

Now, if you want them posted for public view before the FRN comes out then you'll need to use a memo.

Hi, Mike –

Sorry. We've been busy with a few dockets closing around the same time.

I think we still have one that needs processing. The rest has been posted.

One caveat though: it's always difficult to know when/if paper comments are going to show up at some point just because of the nature of that medium and how it travels.

Many thanks!

Hi Assem,

I wanted to follow on Docket EPA-HQ-OW-2015-0753 (Cadmium Aquatic Life Water Quality Criteria) to check what the expected timeframe is for the upload of the remaining comments for public access. It currently looks like one of the eleven comments have been posted, and I assume the others are still undergoing review. I know it takes several days and the reason I am asking is that I have received a couple of external inquiries and I just need to provide them with a timeframe.

Thanks Assem!

Hi, Mike.

Thanks for heads up. Supporting and related materials are uploaded by the Rule Writers (or their designated staff/contractors).

Once you upload them in FDMS, please make sure that the status is to metadata_ready.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Assem,

We are expecting the FR Notice for the cadmium draft criteria to be issued around Dec. 1st or 2nd and the associated documents will need to be held until then, so we are providing you with materials in advance of that date for your QA process. Please find attached the cadmium criteria document. The document is 508 compliant. We will send you two other documents that should be included in the docket later today.

Thank you,
